2017 Year in Review

In many ways, 2017 was a year we will never forget. Our dear friend, entrepreneur and father, “Moostash Joe” Spellerberg, passed away on May 17. As the man who started it all, he will be remembered for bringing so much happiness, laughter and joy to so many of those with whom he crossed paths. Uplifting, high-energy, hard-working – just a few words that describe the kind of person and role model he was. Moostash Joe will be missed greatly, but his legacy will continue through the people he encountered, his passion and vision for travel and the countless places he took many of you. My brother John and I are honored and committed to continue our father’s legacy through Moostash Joe Tours for many more decades to come!

Thanks to you, 2017 was another record-breaking year!

Over 5,200 of you got to experience the thrill of travel and see some of the most beautiful places on earth! A few highlights include a return to Alaska, the incredible new Ark Encounter, East Coast colors, the history overseas and a “fixer-upper” of our own! Time after time we hear we have the nicest travelers, and it shows through your loyalty, trust and repeat business.

Our 2018 lineup highlights where you want to go! We’re proud to be offering an incredible variety of new tours and attractions, familiar annual favorites, plenty of updated itineraries, more delicious restaurants, excellent hotel accommodations and personalized attention. We read and consider every single post-trip evaluation, letter, comment and email, constantly looking to improve and add on any tour, holding close to our reputation as an industry leader for now more than 42 years! We will continue to be transparent, innovative and available to make your traveling experience easy, safe, comfortable and most importantly, fun! From the moment we start planning to the moment you return home, our focus is on you and how we can best serve you with the highest quality tour and greatest customer service at the best possible price. Stay connected with the latest news, tour photos, new tours and tour information on our website, www.mjttours.com. Looking forward to seeing you in 2018!
