ITINERARY

July 13 – Travel Day / St. Louis

Welcome to your Moostash Joe Tour! Meet us at one of our many convenient pick-up points and make our way to St. Louis, Missouri! With westward expansion of the United States, St. Louis' population boomed with immigrants coming from all over in the 1800's, making it one of the most culturally diverse cities in the Midwest today. Early this evening we arrive in downtown and check-in to our accommodations for the next four nights. Relax and get to know your fellow travelers during Drury's great "Kickback" – where complimentary food and drinks are available. (D)

July 14 – Gateway Arch / Anheuser Busch

A full day of St. Louis at its BEST! This morning we meet our local step-on guide and begin our day in St. Louis with a driving tour of Forest Park – home to the 1904 World's Fair – and depending on mass schedules, make a stop at the Cathedral Basilica of Saint Louis, whose 83,000 square-foot mosaic tiled interior is one of the largest such collections in the world! Later this morning enjoy a visit to the National Blues Museum, dedicated to exploring the musical history and impact of the blues music genre. Lunch features amazing St. Louis-style BBQ at Pappy's Smokehouse before our one-hour narrated sightseeing cruise on the Mississippi River for a unique look at St. Louis. After our cruise we check out what's new at the newly renovated Gateway Arch, including tram ride to the top and to see the movie, "Monument to a Dream." Round out the day with a visit to Anheuser Busch Brewery – home of Budweiser Beer. Here, enjoy a stables tour to see the world renowned Clydesdale horses as well as time in the hospitality room to sample its many products! This evening enjoy dinner on The Hill, St. Louis' famous Italian neighborhood and dessert at Ted Drewes Frozen Custard, a must for any visitor. (B, L, D)

July 15 – Springfield, IL / Lincoln Presidential Museum

Today we head out of the big city to visit Springfield, Illinois, the state capital and home to Abraham Lincoln for over two decades. Upon arrival, enjoy plenty of time to explore the Lincoln Presidential Museum, complete with a state of the art library, replica of the cabin in which he was raised and multiple historical films. Lunch will be at Maldaner's, a local (and politician) favorite before our tour of the Old State Capitol building where Lincoln delivered his famous "House Divided" speech in Representatives Hall in 1858. We'll also visit the Lincoln Tomb and learn about the incredible lengths they went to prevent grave robbers from stealing Lincoln's body. Later this afternoon make our way back to St. Louis, where you'll have another chance to enjoy Drury's "Kickback" and to explore Union Station on your own. (B, L, D)

July 16 – Melvin Price Lock & Dam Tour / Cardinals vs. Giants at Busch Stadium

This morning finds us north of St. Louis near the town of Alton, IL for a guided tour of the Melvin Price Lock & Dam. See towboats and barges as they push their way through the Lock from eight stories in the air! The Melvin Price Lock & Dam is vital to river traffic for soybeans, corn, grain, asphalt and other commodities transported via the river. After the tour, enjoy lunch at Pere Marquette, famous for their family-style chicken. Back in St. Louis this afternoon, it's time to take our seats at Busch Stadium for the St. Louis Cardinals vs. San Francisco Giants! Watch two of the best teams in baseball compete in the exciting Busch Stadium atmosphere! (B, L)

July 17 – Return Home

Say goodbye to St. Louis this morning as we begin to make our way home. Spend one last day with your newly made friends reminiscing about your tour to St. Louis, Springfield, IL and Busch Stadium for the Cardinals and Giants! Arrive back at your initial pick-up points this evening. (B)
