December 7 – Museum of Science and Industry / Christkindl Market / 360 Chicago at Night

A day full of memorable Chicago activities await. We start the day with our local step-on tour guide for a wonderful city tour highlighting Chicago's history, architecture, culture and magnificent skyline. We'll drive along Lake Shore Drive, through the University of Chicago campus (where the Ferris Wheel was introduced to the world) and down Millionaires' Row to see where the elite from 1880-1920 lived, including George Pullman and Marshall Field. Then, visit the Museum of Science and Industry for their annual display of "Christmas Trees Around the World." The museum brings Christmas to life with new countries each year and the centerpiece, their 45-foot Grand Tree! Experience a little bit of Germany at the outdoor Christkindl Market in Daley Plaza before our dinner at Francesca's on Chestnut, one of the city's most charming Italian restaurants. But before we call it a night, we climb over 90 stories in less than a minute to the 360 Observatory atop the John Hancock Building! The perfect vantage point to see the Magnificent Mile brilliantly lit for the season with millions of twinkling lights. (B, D)
