New Itinerary! Now includes three nights in Nashville! Join us as we travel to these two unforgettable music cities in the beginning of springtime! Visit Elvis Presley's Graceland, see the Grand Ole Opry, try some good ole' southern food and learn why music made these cities so great! Don't wait on this one! Seats always fill quickly!

ITINERARY

Day 1 – Travel Day / St. Louis Metro

Meet your Moostash Joe Tour Director and Driver at one of our convenient pick-up points! This evening, we arrive just south of St. Louis at the Drury Inn & Suites in Arnold, MO. Here, spend some time to relax and get to know each other while you enjoy Drury's great "Kickback" – where food and drinks are available. (D)

Day 2 – Graceland – Elvis Experience Package / Marlowe's

Today, arrive in Memphis and the Home of Elvis Presley – Graceland! We'll first tour Sun Studios, known worldwide as "the Birthplace of Rock'n'roll!" Then we enjoy the Elvis Experience Package, which includes a Mansion Tour, full access to the all-new entertainment complex along with exhibits showcasing Elvis' career, automobiles, wardrobe, gold records and so much more. Then stay on the grounds for dinner and enjoy mouthwatering Memphis BBQ and Elvis' favorite home cooking at Marlowe's Ribs and Restaurant. (B, D)

Day 3 – Memphis, TN / Loretta Lynn's Ranch

This morning we meet up with our local, step-on guide and take a tour of historic Memphis, TN. Our tour includes the downtown area, Beale Street, St. Jude's and of course, the March of the Peabody Ducks, among other interesting areas. En route to Nashville, we'll stop at Loretta Lynn's Ranch for a guided tour around the home of "The Coal Miner's Daughter", where we'll also enjoy lunch together. Upon arrival this evening in Nashville, we'll come together and enjoy dinner with the company of one of Nashville's many songwriters! (B, L, D)

Day 4 – Nashville / Grand Ole Opry

A full day in Nashville awaits! Today we'll be accompanied by our local (singing!) step-on guide as we learn all about the Music City. We'll also make a stop at the famed Ryman Auditorium for a behind-the-scenes self-guided tour. Our evening meal will be at nearby Santa Fe Cattle Company before taking our seats for the most famous of them all, the Grand Ole Opry at Gaylord Opryland's Opry House. (B, D)

Day 5 – Nashville

Enjoy another day of Nashville "musts!" At the Country Music Hall of Fame, we'll have a special Stories Behind the Songs Program and learn about the art of songwriting. You'll also have free time on Broadway to enjoy a bite to eat for lunch and some live music. We'll also visit the Historic RCA Studio B Recording Studio for our exclusive look inside one of the most famous studios in the world! Located on renowned Music Row, we'll hear the stories behind the legendary recordings and view some of the original instruments used in producing over 1,000 hit records. This afternoon finds us at the Goo Goo Chocolate Co. for our very own hands-on Goo Goo making and our chance to taste, learn and create this one-of-a-kind Nashville treat. Enjoy a bit of free time at Marathon Village – including a whiskey tasting before sharing an evening meal together at a local favorite spot. (B, D)

Day 6 – Hannibal, MO

Today we begin our drive back north, making stops along the way before arriving late this afternoon in Hannibal, Missouri – home of the American writer, Mark Twain. We'll sit down together over dinner at Fiddlesticks, a local favorite restaurant. (B, D)

Day 7 – Return Home

Spend one last day enjoying the company of your fellow travelers before saying goodbye to your Moostash Joe Tour Director and Driver as you arrive back at your initial pick-up point this afternoon and evening. (B)
