Day 4 – Boston Whale Watch / Historic Boston in Bloom

We'll meet our local guide this morning and set out on a memorable day in Boston! An onboard naturalist will share fascinating insights throughout the journey. Lunch on your own and free time will be at Quincy Market, a must stop for any visitor, where cobblestone walkways, lively performances, local artisans and a wonderful variety of food vendors create one of Boston's most beloved gathering places. This afternoon we enjoy a Spring in Bloom Historic Boston Tour, with sights along the Freedom Trail, Boston Common, Beacon Hill and the gold-deemed State House. Later, relive one of the most important nights in American history at the Boston Tea Party Ships & Museum, where interactive exhibits, full-scale replica ships, colonial characters and a spirited reenactment bring the story to life. Dinner is included at a local favorite spot to end our full day in Boston. (B, D)

Day 5 – Portland, Maine / Harbor Cruise

Today we travel north to Portland, Maine – the largest city by the sea in the Pine Tree State. We'll meet our local guide and enjoy a bit of free time in the historic Old Port Exchange, where cobblestone streets, Victorian brick buildings, art galleries, microbreweries, specialty shops and views of Casco Bay create a lively coastal atmosphere. Your narrated Portland tour includes views of Longfellow's boyhood home, sea captain houses and elegant Victorian mansions. We'll stop at Portland Head Lighthouse – one of Maine's most iconic and photographed landmarks. This afternoon, we board a narrated Portland Harbor Cruise, passing through the Calendar Islands of Casco Bay, taking in lighthouses, harbor scenery, maritime history and perhaps even a harbor seal! This evening we enjoy dinner at DiMillo's on the Water, a unique waterfront dining landmark in Portland's Old Port. (B, D)

Day 6 – Mount Washington Cog Railway / White Mountains

Depart Maine this morning for our journey to New Hampshire and it's mountain scenery and classic New England adventure! We'll meet our local guide before our ride on the famed Mount Washington Cog Railway, the world's first mountain-climbing cog railway. This afternoon, continue through the White Mountains and visit areas known for brilliant fields of lupines, where purple, pink, blue and white blossoms create a breathtaking seasonal display. Later, we visit Fadden's General Store, an authentic family-owned general store dating back to 1896 and known for its maple sugar house and award-winning New Hampshire maple syrup. After dinner at the Woodstock Inn & Brewery, we board the Moose Tour Bus for our special three-hour narrated evening wildlife adventure in search of these gentle giants in their natural habitat! (B, L, D)
