November 30 – Blue Bonnet Cafe / San Antonio, TX
Temperatures continue to rise today as we continue south! Lunch (and dessert) will be at the Blue Bonnet Cafe, a local favorite spot in the quaint community of Marble Falls. Then, continue through beautiful Texas Hill Country where we'll all enjoy a wine tasting from one of their many renowned wineries. Early this evening we arrive in the heart of San Antonio and check-in for our two-night stay at the Drury Plaza Hotel right along the famed Riverwalk! This 24-story renovated skyscraper is right in the middle of all the action and features 50-foot ceilings and a rooftop pool. During Christmastime, the Riverwalk glows with thousands of its famous holiday lights hanging from the trees above and is one of the most popular Christmastime attractions in the south! Riverwalk Cruise tickets will be provided upon arrival to use at your leisure. (B, L, D)

December 1 – SAS Shoes / The Alamo
A day full of fun activities and sightseeing awaits! This morning we head over to tour the SAS (San Antonio Shoes) Factory for an insider look at how "the most comfortable shoes in the world" are handmade. Lunch will be at the revolving dining room atop the Tower of America's, providing excellent 360 degree birds-eye views of San Antonio. We then meet our local step-on guide to take us around San Antonio this afternoon, featuring stops at the Mission San Jose and The Alamo! Wander this historic, must-see destination and discover why the Battle of the Alamo was such a pivotal event in the Texas Revolution. This evening, relax and enjoy the company of your fellow travelers during Drury's great "Kickback" – where complimentary food and drinks are available, and another opportunity to head out for a night under the lights! (B, L, D)

December 2 – LBJ Presidential Museum / Waco, Texas
This morning we make our way back north, stopping in Austin, TX to visit the LBJ Presidential Museum to learn about the 36th president of the United States as well as take a step-on guided tour of this renowned college town and Texas state capital, which is also one of the fastest growing cities in the country. Later today, enjoy free time for lunch and a bit of time to shop at Waco's Magnolia Market at the Silos, home to the hit HGTV show "Fixer Upper!" While in Waco, we also take the time to visit the Dr. Pepper Museum before continuing onto the Dallas metro where we'll be overnight and another chance to enjoy Drury's great "Kickback." (B, D)

December 3 – Fort Worth Stockyards / Oklahoma City National Memorial
After a leisurely morning we make our way to Fort Worth and the Stockyards. Our own step-on tour guide will be waiting for us for one-of-a-kind commentary on its past, present and future. The Old West comes to life every day at 11:30 a.m., where real Texas cowhands drive a herd of Texas longhorns down the block. Continue north this afternoon and into Oklahoma City to visit the inspirational Oklahoma City National Memorial which honors the victims, survivors, rescuers and all who were affected by the Oklahoma City bombing on April 19, 1995. Tonight is free for you to enjoy our great location and the vibrant Bricktown district at your leisure. (B)
